Create Videos Using Screencastify and Your Chromebook

Screencastify gives you the ability to create a video of your computer screen and records your voice. This tool works well with Google Slides or PowerPoint presentations where you present and discuss your classroom topics.
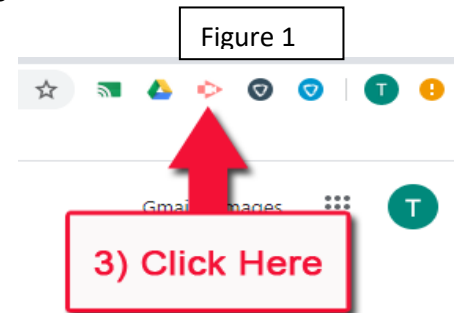

The Screencastify is a Chrome Extension meaning and is installed for SJB faculty members. You can use Sceencastify on a computer, Mac, laptop, Chromebook, ipad etc… just as long as you have the Google Chrome web browser and you log into Google Chrome.

Step 1 – Set permissions for Screencastify

This step allows gives Screencastify Extension permission to access your Google Account

1. Log onto your Chromebook
2. Click on the ScreenCastify Icon (See Figure 1)

    Figure 1

    3) Click Here

    a. Click Sign in with Google (twice)
    b. Select your Google Account
    c. Click Allow
    d. Click Next (3 times) to allow permission to your Camera, Microphone, Drawing and Annotation tools.
    e. Click Educator
    f. Click Grade School

    You now can access and use the Screencastify Extension

Step 2 – Create a Screencast

1. Decide what material you're are going to present and open that in on your Chromebook.
2. Click on the Screencastify Icon (See Figure 1).
3. Click on Record then Share
4. Click Present in Google Slides
    a. At this point your are recording so go ahead and create your video
5. Click on Stop Sharing when finished.
    a. Screencastify creates and .MP4 movie that is saved into your Google Drive Account.

    Save to Google Classroom
6. Click on Share to Classroom (If using Google Classroom)
    a. Click the Dropdown and select classrooms to save to.
    b. Click to post the video as an Assignment, Question, Announcement or Material

    Save and Share Link
7. Click on the Copy shareable link and paste the link on your Plus Portals Page, email or anywhere else you wish to share the video.
    a. Only Student and Teachers with St. Johns Google accounts can access this video.