About the Saint

As the son of Mary of Clopas (Cleophas), the sister of the Blessed Virgin Mary and one of the “three Marys” who stood by Jesus during His crucifixion, Jude is the Lord’s first cousin.

Saint Jude’s visit offers a unique opportunity to experience a connection with one of the most venerated figures in Christian history. “Regarded as the patron saint of lost causes and desperate situations, the visit provides an opportunity for individuals to experience intimacy with someone who dwells in Heaven and beholds God face-to-face,” said Father Carlos Martins, CC, a Custos Reliquiarum (ecclesiastically-appointed curate of relics) and director of Treasures of the Church. “It allows devotees to receive his blessing and entrust him with their petitions.”

About the Relics

Saint Jude’s body was buried in the place of his martyrdom but was transferred to Rome during the time of the Emperor Constantine. His tomb rests directly below the main altar of the left transept of Saint Peter’s Basilica. Several centuries ago, his arm was removed and placed in a simple wooden reliquary carved in the shape of a priestly arm, imparting a blessing. They reside within the same today.

The tour that is coming to the Diocese of Rockville Centre is also stopping in numerous dioceses spanning most of the country, including Illinois, Minnesota, Kansas, Michigan, New York, Texas, Oregon and California.

Extraordinary Papal Plenary Indulgence

Pilgrims will be able to receive an extraordinary Plenary Indulgence issued by Pope Francis and published by the Vatican's Apostolic Penitentiary.

Father Martins, who has been ministering with relics for almost 30 years, remarks, "God never disappoints but always "shows up" at an exposition. There are healings at each one. Thousands have been reported to me spectacular ones. Attendees have reported cancer, heart disease, tumors osteoporosis, physical deformities, etc. disappear immediately and completely."

Though a great number of miracles have been physical, he admits that the most spectacular is the healing of faith, where a new and deeper relationship with God and His saints form in the faithful. "It is wonderful to see a parish, school, or prison renewed after an exposition. That is the basis for this ministry's existence, and I cannot wait to see how Saint Jude will add to it," said Fr. Martins.
